FACULTY OF ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

ENVS/3160 3.00M (Winter)
RACE/RACISM AND ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE

Time: Wednesday, 11:30am-2:30pm

Examines the intersection of "race"/racism and environmentalism. It begins from the premise that environmental issues are always already racialized. Issues as diverse as toxic facility siting, environmental assessment practices, ecological philosophies, and popular nature representations (re)produce powerful assumptions that turn on racist/racialized constructs. Discussion may include: the history and current practices of environmental justice movements; questions of race and representation in green politics; the significance of environmentalism's silence about race; cross-cultural and anti-racist environmental politics; and postcolonial perspectives on global environmental issues.

Prerequisite: Third- or fourth-year standing.
